

• Application Form •
Financial Support for Emerging
Researchers' Attendance at
ISAAC 2012 • Pittsburgh, USA

July 30–August 2: Main Conference
August 3–4: Research Symposium

To be eligible for emerging researcher financial support, a candidate needs to be a member of ISAAC

Questions concerning Student Resume & Information Form should be directed to Filip Loncke, Chair of the ISAAC Research Committee: ftl4n@virginia.edu

Please complete the following information, then send or deliver to nominating faculty member(s) to complete the bottom portion of this form.

Check carefully to ensure the information submitted is accurate and complete.
Personal Information
First Name:	Last Name:
Address:
City State Zip:
Country:
Phone number:	Email Address:
Are you a member of ISAAC?
Are you a member of another organization that promotes or focuses on AAC?
Have you been involved in the local chapter of ISAAC (if one exists), including both administration or governance, or participation in ISAAC events, attendance at chapter meetings or teleconference, conferences, AAC awareness events, or providing assistance in ISAAC activities at a local level? (E.g., volunteering to assist at events, participating on executive teams, providing presentations, developing resources, etc.). Please describe briefly.
What is your native language?
Have you already secured some funding to attend the conference?
Do you also intend to attend the ISAAC research symposium?
Please provide us with a curriculum vitae or personal resume.
Have you presented at a previous ISAAC conference? Have you presented at local conferences (in your country). Please provide us with the title and reference of your presentation.
Have you submitted or do you intend submitting a paper to the main conference of ISAAC?
Research-related Information
Institute where you conduct your research:

Describe briefly your personal research goals (not more than 1 paragraph)

Do you have a research mentor? Please provide name and contact address/email:

What is the highest academic degree you have? (Bachelors, masters, PhD, other)

Are you presently working toward obtaining a degree? Please indicate targeted degree, institute, and mentor?

How far advanced are you toward completing this degree?

Have you published articles, chapters, books, designed websites, or created other publications? Please provide references (not more than 5)

Please write a personal statement of your research work and involvement in the AAC field (250 words or less)

Please provide us with a short recommendation by a person who knows your research, your work, and who can testify for your research potential in the field of AAC.

(You can ask the recommender to either enter the recommendation in this field – or to provide a separately attached letter)

Please send this application by electronic mail to Filip Loncke by November 15, 2011.