Toronto, Canada – March 2nd, 2020: We understand that concerns about the new coronavirus are a factor when making international travel arrangements at this time. Information about COVID-19 is rapidly changing.

The World Health Organization \(WHO\) has been supporting national authorities in global efforts to track the virus. In addition, the WHO and the World Tourism Organization (UNWTO) recently released a joint statement calling for responsibility and coordination in guiding the travel and tourism sectors' response to COVID-19. By closely monitoring updates provided by WHO and other governmental agencies from around the world, ISAAC is committed to communicating the best current information as the situation unfolds.

As of today, there are only five confirmed cases in Mexico, two in Mexico City, one in the state of Sinaloa, one in the Estado de (state of) México, and one in the state of Chiapas. None of these individual cases are seriously ill. All current cases in México and most in Southern California (US), seem to be linked to the outbreak in northern Italy. No cases have been reported in Cancún.

ISAAC looks forward to hosting a successful ISAAC 2020 conference in Cancún, México, this coming August. We will continue to communicate on this topic, as needed, in order to ensure the safety and well-being of all conference attendees.

ISAAC is an international membership organization with head offices in Toronto. ISAAC's goal is to create worldwide awareness about how AAC can help individuals without speech. ISAAC accomplishes this by sharing information and promoting innovative approaches to research, technology and literacy through AAC. Activities include hosting the ISAAC biennial conference, sponsoring projects, and offering awards and scholarships. ISAAC is a Non-Governmental Organization in consultative status with the United Nations Economic and Social Council (ECOSOC).
